128 Check out this Vieux!

This Salமானazar (equivalent to 12 bottles of wine) of 2006 Vieux Télégraphe can be yours!

Domaine du Vieux Télégraphe derives its name from an old telegraph station, one which was once sited on the hill where this Chateauneuf domaine now stands. The Vieux Télégraphe vineyards are unusual because they lie in a single block, on the La Crau plateau, today covering an area of 70 hectares.

This “Vieux” is beautiful, for the bottle itself, and the wine inside.

137 Riedel: A Glass is Not Just a Glass

Is it possible that the shape of a glass can actually make wine taste better? A little more than a decade ago, that notion would have been scoffed at even by winemakers and connoisseurs. Twenty years ago, the Riedel name was largely unknown in the United States. Today the Riedel glassmaking company is internationally known for being one of the finest crystal makers in the world.

"The finest glasses for both technical and hedonistic purposes are those made by Riedel. The effect of these glasses on fine wine is profound. I cannot emphasize enough what a difference they make." (Robert M. Parker, Jr. The Wine Advocate)

Now, on April 2, 2010, 12 people will join Mike Zupan for this amazing taste experience at the Wine Cellar at Zupan's Burnside store led by a Riedel representative. He will introduce you to the world of Riedel Sommelier glasses — Burgundy, Bordeaux and Montrachet — with a tasting of wines from Young's Columbia. You will enjoy heavy appetizers provided by Zupan's, and as an added bonus, you will get to take three Riedel Sommelier glasses home with you ($250 value).

Now you can see what a difference a glass makes!

This package will be sold for $300 per person, up to 12 people.

THIS LOT INCLUDES:

145 Leonetti

The saying, "great wine is made in the vineyard," is true when it comes to Leonetti Cellar. Each of their diverse vineyard sites throughout the Walla Walla Valley (and two in the Columbia Valley) bring special character that contributes to the overall blend of their Cabernet Sauvignon wines.

Leonetti is one of the most famous small wineries in the Pacific Northwest, perhaps in the nation, and is the oldest winery operating in the Walla Walla Valley. The winery's Cabernet Sauvignons have received lofty ratings by international wine media and are ranked as some of the best in the world.

The passionate following of Leonetti is due, in part, to the fact that their wines are sold almost exclusively to a mailing list of customers during one whirlwind weekend in the spring.

This package will be sold as one lot with ten bottles of wine.
